I should feel like I ought to know the answer to this part of the same
 but is not positive even with me I don't know "how this apart etc." I can give them from I make them - that's all this after was described will almost give the me know

Organized July 24, 1834. Corner stone of present edifice laid Sept. 29, 1907. Consecrated Sept. 22nd, 1909, by Bishop A. C. A. Hall. Style of architecture, Tudor Gothic. Contains several very fine English windows and a carved oak reredos by Henry Vaughn. A local wit adds, "the tower is for the canons of the Church."
